

Freedom of Information Publication Scheme

Guide to information available from schools in the Tenax Schools Trust under the Freedom of Information Act Publication Scheme

Adoption Arrangements and Date

All statutory policies in the Trust are ultimately the responsibility of the Trust Board. To enable it to discharge this responsibility appropriately and in collaboration with the constituent schools, the Trust Board will

1. either set a full Trust wide policy,
2. or set a 'policy principles' document (a framework within which LGBs develop a full and appropriately customised policy),
3. or delegate to LGBs the power to develop their own policy which the Trust Board will then ratify.

Review Body:	Board of Trustees	Adopted:	18.5.17
Leadership Grp Responsibility:	CEO	Date of next review:	Spring 2019
Policy Type:	Statutory	Review period:	2 years

This is a Level 1 Policy against the Trust Governance Plan.

This procedure was adopted by the Board of Trustees of Tenax Schools Trust, for implementation in all Trust schools on the date above and supersedes any previous Freedom of Information Policy.

Guide to information available from schools in the Tenax Schools Trust under the Freedom of Information Act Publication Scheme

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) model publication scheme commits an authority to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where this information is held by the authority. Additional assistance is provided to the definition of these classes in sector specific guidance manuals issued by the Information Commissioner.

The scheme commits an authority:

- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
- To specify the information that is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- To review and update on a regular basis the information the authority makes available under this scheme.
- To produce a schedule of fees charges for access to information that is made proactively available.
- To make this publication scheme available to the public.

Classes of information not generally included are:

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure
- Information in draft form
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

As an authority, the Tenax Schools Trust has to clearly indicate to the public what information is covered by its scheme and how it can be obtained.

Where it is within the capability of a public authority, information has to be provided on a website. Where it is impracticable to make information available on a website, or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, it is required to indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means.

In exceptional circumstances some information may be made available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details have to be provided. An appointment to view the information needs to be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information has to be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where it is legally required the authority is required to have the information translated.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats must be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

Charges which may be made for information published under this scheme

The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public.

Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge.

Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- photocopying
- postage and packaging
- the costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information

Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public. Charges made by the Trust for printing published material are listed at the end of the document and have been kept to a minimum in line with legislation.

Charges may also be made for making datasets (or parts of datasets) that are relevant copyright works available for re-use. These charges will be in accordance with the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015, where they apply, or with regulations made under section 11B of the Freedom of Information Act, or with other statutory powers of the public authority.

If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.

Written Requests

Information held by an academy that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing from the Headteacher of the individual school, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

Methods by which Information is Published under this Scheme

The schools in the Tenax Schools Trust comply with the DfE Freedom of Information Act model publication scheme for schools by following the table below, which identifies the information which meets the requirements of the Information Commissioner.
